1962-63 NEW YORK KNICKERBOCKERS

COACH EDDIE DONOVAN

This is Eddie Donovan's second season as coach of the New York Knickerbockers. He is 39 years old, a resident of Elizabeth, N. J., and prior to taking over the Knicks on May 8, 1961, he coached St. Bonaventure University's court teams for eight years. He led the Bonnies to the final of the 1960 Holiday Festival, in Madison Square Garden, losing to Ohio State by two points. St. Bonaventure, under Donovan, competed in four straight National Invitation Tournaments, in New York, and in the 1961 National Collegiate championship. His eight-year won-loss record was 139-57.

Donovan was named 1961 "Coach of the Year" by the New York Basketball Writers Association, after the Bonnies had posted a 24-4 mark and were repeatedly No. 2 or 3 in the weekly national polls conducted by the Associated Press and United Press-International.

The mild-mannered, crew-cut Donovan is a figure of dignity, dedication and detail and popular with players, fans and sportswriters. "I am very happy to have Eddie Donovan as our coach," said Ned Irish, president of Madison Square Garden. "He did an excellent job with the Knicks last season, considering the circumstances, and under his guidance we view the future with high hopes."

Donovan, who came out of the New Jersey playgrounds and Elizabeth's St. Patrick's High School, enrolled at St. Bonaventure in 1946. He played basketball there three years, but retired because of a broken hand in his senior season to coach the freshman team. Following a Navy hitch he joined the St. Bonaventure faculty in 1953 after teaching in the Olean, N. Y., public school system and coaching the Olean High School team. His two-year scholastic record was 30 victories in 39 starts, including a sectional championship.

At St. Bonaventure, Eddie developed Tom Stith, twice an All-America selection. Stith was runner-up to Oscar Robertson in national scoring in 1960 with a 31.5 average and third in 1961 with a 29.6 norm.

Knicks On WCBS Radio . . .

Marty Glickman will broadcast the New York Knickerbockers games this season for WCBS radio (880 on the dial).

The sponsors for the Knicks and Rangers broadcasts are Budweiser Beer and Phillies cigars.

Glickman filled a similar post with the Knicks for 10 straight years, starting in 1946 when the league was organized.

He was a star halfback and track man at Syracuse University and at James Madison High School in Brooklyn. In 1936 he was a member of the U. S. track team for the Berlin Olympics.

WCBS, which broadcasts New York Yankee games, will air a total of 110 Knicks and New York Rangers contests as part of its year-around major sports coverage.

. . . and Subscription-TV

Channel 18, Hartford, Conn., offers approximately 50 New York Knickerbockers and New York Rangers games this season on subscription-TV. Basketball fans in the Hartford area will see the world champion Boston Celtics and the Knicks playing all other teams in the National Basketball Association.

John N. Pinto, RKO General Phonovision vice-president, said: "We are enthusiastic about the opportunity to present these contests to our subscription viewers. By offering a diversified selection of basketball and hockey, we hope to establish exactly what sports and what teams our viewers wish to see.

CLEVELAND BUCKNER

Age*—24, born in Yazoo County, Miss., Aug. 17, 1938
Height*—6 feet 7 inches. Weight—210 pounds
Home*—Yazoo City, Miss. College—Jackson State

Buckner made a creditable showing with the Knicks in his pro debut last season. Brought along gradually by Coach Eddie Donovan, Buckner appeared in 62 games, played 696 minutes, scored 399 points and took 236 rebounds. He had a commendable field goal percentage of .430 and showed a lot of hustle and desire. Bucky was named to the all-NAIA team two seasons (the only repeater) and was a member of the college squad for the 1960 Olympic trials at Denver. He led the Southwest Athletic Conference in field goal percentage as a senior with .605, averaging 21.9 points for 26 games. He was runner-up in league rebounds with a 20.9 norm. In 1959-60 Buckner was second in NAIA rebounding with a 25.5 average while hitting for 23.5 points per game. Cleveland has strong hands, split second timing with his passes and makes good use of a jump shot outside the pivot area. Didn't start playing basketball until his senior year in high school. His wife, Joeneta, is a school teacher and he has a similar ambition when he quits basketball. Very popular with Knick teammates because of his sense of humor.

DAVE BUDD

Age*—24, born in Woodbury, N. J., Oct. 28, 1938
Height*—6 feet 6 inches. Weight—210 pounds
Home*—Woodbury, N. J. College—Wake Forest

Budd played in 79 of the Knicks' 80 games last season, his second with the club after a very successful career at Wake Forest. His forte in NBA competition is defense. Last year he scored 514 points usually in relief of Willie Naulls, Johnny Green or Darrall Imhoff. Though he didn't shoot often he was one of the best shots on the squad with a percentage of .436. As a pro freshmen, 1960-61, Dave scored 399 points, grabbed 297 rebounds and his .432 field goal average was second best on the team. In the second half of the schedule he suffered a severe virus and missed the Knicks' final 15 games. Budd led Wake Forest in scoring and rebounding in his sophomore and junior years. He sparked the Deacons to the 1959 Dixie Classic title and to a first place tie with North Carolina in the Atlantic Coast Conference. His totals at Wake Forest were 1,014 points, a 13.5 average for 75 games, and 682 rebounds, a 9.1 norm. His best season was as a soph when he made 364 points, averaging 15.8, to be named to the second team All-ACC. He was the Knicks' No. 2 draft pick in 1960, being strongly recommended as a promising corner man by Bones McKinney, Wake Forest coach.

DONNIS BUTCHER

Age*—26, born in Williamsport, Ky., Feb. 8, 1936
Height*—6 feet 2 inches. Weight—200 pounds
Home*—Williamsport, Ky. College—Pikeville, Ky.

Butcher was drafted by the New York Knicks in 1961, but did not report to training camp because of a leg injury received in baseball. He debuted with New York, Dec. 1 and for the remainder of the season was a backcourt reservist. At Pikeville, Ky., College, Butcher scored 2,073 points in 88 games for a 23.6 average, had 1,086 rebounds and 750 assists. He was named to the All-Kentucky Conference team three straight years and was called the most versatile player in Pikeville history. He captained the Meade High School team, in Williamsport, Ky., that won 32 consecutive games in 1954-55. He was all-state, all-regional and all-district. His brother Paul coaches Pikeville. Before entering college, Butcher played three years of AAU basketball with National Cash Register of Dayton, Ohio. Also played tennis and baseball for Pikeville. Secretary-treasurer of his senior class. Comes from agricultural and coal mining area of Kentucky. Has four-year old daughter, Deborah.

KNICKS REACHED PLAYOFF FINAL THREE TIMES

The Knicks' best season was 1952-53 when they led the Eastern Division with 47-23, a .671 percentage. They also topped the division the following season (44-28) but were defeated both times in the playoffs. The 1952-53 loss to the Minneapolis Lakers marked the third straight season the Knicks had reached and been defeated in the final playoff round.

AL BUTLER

Age*—24, born in Rochester, N. Y., July 9, 1938
Height*—6 feet 2 inches. Weight—175 pounds
Home*—Rochester, N. Y. College—Niagara

The New York Knicks purchased Butler from the Boston Celtics, Dec. 10, 1961. He appeared in five games with the Celtics, scoring 31 points for a 6.2 average. His figures with the Knicks were 54 games, 800 points and a 14.8 average as he teamed in the backcourt with Richie Guerin. Against his former Boston teammates he averaged 18.8 in 9 games, his best showing against any NBA club. He was second to Guerin in team assists with 203. Al was Boston's second draft choice in April, 1961, following a highly successful career at Niagara University. He scored 470 points for a 20.1 average in his sophomore season, and 748 as a junior, a 28.8 average, to rank sixth in the nation. One of the high points of his college days was helping to hand his present Knick coach, Eddie Donovan, his first home loss at St. Bonaventure after 99 consecutive victories. In 1957 while at Rochester's East High School he was named to the 1957 All-America scholastic team, along with such well known aces as Jerry Lucas, Tony Jackson and Tom Meschery. He finished a three-year career at Niagara with 1,596 points, setting school records in his sophomore and junior years. He is fast afoot, a good ball handler and an excellent shot from the outside. Al is a history major and once taught at Niagara Falls Gaskell Junior High School.

GENE CONLEY

Height*—6 feet 8 inches, Weight—225 pounds
Home*—Foxboro, Mass. College—Washington State

The Knicks obtained Conley from the Chicago Zephyrs, September 10, 1962 in exchange for veteran center Phil Jordon and rookie Cliff Luyk, their fourth draft pick. Gene played four seasons with the Boston Celtics after one year of varsity ball at Washington State, leaving college when he signed as a pitcher with the Boston Braves. His first season with the Celtics was 1952-53, then he quit basketball for five years. Conley returned to the Celts in 1958 and remained through 1961. Averaging less than 20 minutes playing time per game in 1960 and 1961 Gene nevertheless grabbed 1,140 rebounds, an average of 8, and scored 950 points. Chicago, a new entrant in the NBA in 1961, selected Conley from a pool of players designated by the eight other clubs. He played on three straight title teams with the Celtics, 1959-61. The past season he was a starting pitcher for the Boston Red Sox. As a high school athlete in Richland, Wash., Conley won letters in basketball, baseball and as a high jumper in track. Gene launched his court career as an eight-year-old in Muskogee (Okla.) YMCA's 100-pound midget league.

JOHNNY GREEN

Age*—29, born in Dayton, Ohio, Dec. 8, 1933
Height*—6 feet 5 inches. Weight—200 pounds
Home*—Dayton, Ohio. College—Michigan State

Green was the New York Knicks' leading rebounder (1,061) and third best scorer last season. He totalled 1,285 points for a 16.1 average and was the only Knick to play in all 80 games. This is his fourth year in the NBA and the former Michigan State ace has yet to reach his full potential. His improvement in the pro circuit has been very impressive. In his initial season, 1959-60, he averaged 7.0 points for 69 games, took 539 rebounds. In 1960-61 he raised his scoring norm to 10.2 and his rebounds to 818. Last year he replaced Willie Naulls as New York's top boards player after the former had led the team in rebounds four straight seasons. Green is runner-up to Harry Gallatin for Knick rebounds in one season. Harry grabbed 1,098 in 1953-54, 32 more than Johnny's 1961-62 total. Green is rated the best leaper in the NBA for his height and he had some memorable nights against the much taller Wilt Chamberlain and Bill Russell. Scoring wise his best single game was versus Detroit, at Syracuse, January 6, 1962 when he hit for 33 points. Johnny was all-Big Ten three straight seasons and his 1,062 points was third highest in Michigan State history. He did not play high school basketball, first taking up the sport seriously while serving overseas with the Marines. He was an unanimous all-service selection after leading Atsurgi Air Base (Japan) to the Central Command title.

RICHIE GUERIN

Age*—30, born in the Bronx, N. Y., May 29, 1932
Height*—6 feet 4 inches. Weight—195 pounds
Home*—Huntington Station, N. Y. College—Iona

Guerin set an all-time Knicks scoring record last season, his sixth with the club, with 2,303 point in 78 games for a 29.5 average, sixth best performance in the NBA. He also led the Knicks in assists, 539, for fourth spot in the league, and was the team's third best rebounder with 501. Only two other backcourtmen, Oscar Robertson (Cincinnati) and Jerry West (Los Angeles) scored more than 2,000 points in a single season. Guerin topped the Knicks in scoring in 1959-60 with 1,615 points, an average of 21.8. In 1960-61 he raised his total to 1,720 points, but was runner-up to Willie Naulls (1,846). Richie led the Knicks in assists the past four seasons, and he holds New York's single game record, 57 points versus Syracuse, Dec. 11, 1959, in Madison Square Garden. His other one-game club marks are: most field goals 23 (tied with Naulls); most free throws, 22 of 23 and most assists, 21. He is second to Carl Braun in all-time Knick total points. Braun scored 10,449 in 12 seasons, Guerin 8,665 in six. Richie was voted to the past five NBA East-West All-Star Games and to the 1962 all-league team. At Iona College, in 1953-54 he scored 519 points for a 24.7 average to lead the New York area. He was drafted by the Knicks in 1954, but served two years with the Quantico Marines.

PAUL HOGUE

Age*—22, born in Knoxville, Tenn., April 28, 1940
Height*—6 feet 9 inches. Weight—240 pounds
Home*—Knoxville. College—Cincinnati

Hogue, 6-9 center of the University of Cincinnati, National Collegiate champion the past two years, was the New York Knicks' No. 1 1962 draft selection. He was named 1962 "Player of the Year" by the Helms Foundation and voted to the U. S. Basketball Writers' All-America published by Look Magazine. The 240-pound pivotman captained Cincinnati last season and is the third leading scorer and rebounder in Bearcat history, ranking behind pro aces Oscar Robertson and Jack Twyman in both departments. Hogue totalled 1,391 points and 1,088 rebounds in three years and started 91 consecutive games during that period. An indication of his perfect timing around the defensive basket was the 62 shots he blocked last season in leading Cincinnati to a 29-2 record. The Knoxville resident was chosen the most valuable player in the 1962 NCAA championship, receiving 75 of the 78 votes cast after he had out-scored and out-rebounded Ohio State's Jerry Lucas in the final. Hogue was also selected MVP of the 1961 Holiday Festival, in Madison Square Garden, when he scored 62 points and took 51 rebounds in three games. His other honors were All-Missouri Valley Conference first team for the second straight year; All-District Five (Look) and MVP for the NCAA Midwest Regionals at Manhattan, Kansas. Hogue attended Knoxville's Austin High School. In his senior year he set a school mark of 543 rebounds and averaged better than 20 points. Paul's top collegiate scoring effort was 36 points against UCLA, March 23, 1962, in the NCAA semi-finals. During his three seasons in the pivot Cincinnati won 84 games, lost only 7. He has the second highest field goal percentage at UC, .529. Tops is Oscar Robertson's .535.

Age*—28, born in Dallas, Texas, Oct. 17, 1934
Height*—6 feet 7 inches. Weight—225 pounds
Home*—Los Angeles, Calif. College—UCLA

Naulls finished seventh in NBA scoring last season with 1,877 points in 75 games for a 25.0 average, a better performance than the previous year, but he was runner-up to Richie Guerin among the Knicks. Richie had 2,303 in 78 games for 29.5. Naulls led the Knicks in 1960-61 with 1,846. That was a new all-time club record, but Guerin topped it the past campaign. Willie was second to Dolph Schayes, of Syracuse, on the foul line last winter, hitting .842 percent of his free throws. After four straight seasons as the Knicks' top rebounder Naulls was displaced last year by Johnny Green. The latter had 1,061 rebounds, Naulls 867. The former UCLA All-America, voted to the NBA East-West All Star Game four of the past five years, averaged better than 20 points against all league rivals last season. He was most effective facing the Philadelphia Warriors with a 29.2 norm for 12 games. He shares with Guerin the Knicks' all-time record for field goals in one game, 23. His best evening was 49 points versus Detroit, in New York, February 7, 1961. Naulls was drafted by the St. Louis Hawks in 1956. He was traded, after 19 games, to the Knicks for Slater Martin, December 10, 1956. Willie led UCLA to the Pacific Coast Conference title in his senior year, setting a new school mark of 661 points in 28 games, an average of 23.6.

JOHN RUDOMETKIN

Age*—22, born in Santa Maria, Calif., June 6, 1940
Height*—6 feet 6 inches. Weight—205 pounds
Home*—Santa Maria, Calif. College—Southern Calif.

Rudometkin holds all University of Southern California scoring and rebounding records of note. The 6-6 speedster was New York's No. 2 draft pick for 1962. His credentials as the greatest Trojan cager of all time are many. He finished his varsity career with 1,484 points, more than 400 higher than the ex-USC and former Boston Celtics' ace Bill Sharman. John led the Trojans in scoring all three of his varsity campaigns and won the Big Five Conference title the last two years. At the conclusion of his junior season, when he scored 645 points for a 23.9 average, he claimed every major Trojan single game and single season record. To this he added 11 marks last season, including nine of the ten career standards listed in the USC record book. Only Sharman's three-year free throw percentage mark eluded Rudo. Forrest Twogood, USC coach, said: "Rudometkin has everything to become a truly great player. He's the best I ever coached. He is like a ballet dancer with his shooting and his cat-like moves never ceased to amaze me." Despite USC's only fair record last season (14-11) Rudo scored 524 points for a 21.0 average and grabbed 280 rebounds to raise his career total to 831. He recorded one of the most amazing records ever posted by a prep school player while at Santa Maria High. Twice named to the All-America scholastic team, he made 966 points in 32 games as a senior and 781 in 28 as a junior. Rudometkin is of Russian descent. His family speak both Russian and Spanish fluently and lived for awhile in Mexico. He is married to his former high school sweetheart.

Age*—29, born in Watsonville, Calif., Aug. 17, 1933
Height*—6 feet 9 inches. Weight—195 pounds
Home*—Watsonville, Calif. College—Santa Clara

Sears led the New York Knicks in scoring twice in his first six years with the team. In 1957-58 he had 1,342 points for an 18.6 average and in 1958-59, 1,488 for 21.0. In 1956-57 he just missed by 10 points to be runner-up to Harry Gallatin. The tall West Coast native was second to Willie Naulls for club rebounds in 1957-58, 14 behind the latter, and also in 1958-59. In 1959-60 Kenny missed 8 games because of injuries and was third to Richie Guerin and Naulls in points. Sears missed 25 games in 1960-61 because of a fractured jaw received in a collision with Detroit's George Lee. His points that season were 750 for a 14.4 norm. Sears was the Knicks' No. 1 draft pick in 1955 from Santa Clara where in his senior year he scored 535 points for a 22.3 average behind a sensational .501 shooting percentage. In his junior and senior seasons he was voted the outstanding player in Northern California ahead of Bill Russell. He hits with soft one handers and has surprising spring under the baskets. Kenny is one of the fastest and most agile big men in the NBA. He can set, drive or handoff and does a lot of each. Sears played in the 1958 and 1959 NBA East-West games, and was one of the leading scorers in each contest.

GENE SHUE

Age*—31, born in Baltimore, Md., Dec. 18, 1931
Height*—6 feet 2 inches. Weight—175 pounds
Home*—Lutherville, Md. College—Maryland

The Knicks obtained Shue from the Detroit Pistons, August 29, 1962 in return for Darrall Imhoff and cash. Gene was a top ranking guard with the Pistons the past six years. His 1,712 points, for a 22.8 average, in 1959-60 set a record for NBA backcourt men. He raised his total points to 1,765 in 1960-61, a norm of 22.6. Last season he scored 1,522, averaging 19.0, and was runner-up to Bailey Howell for team honors. Shue was voted to the NBA All-Star first team in 1960 and to the second team in 1961. He played in the last five East-West pro games. In six seasons Shue became Detroit's top career scorer with 7,974 points in 440 games, an average of 18.1. Gene was the Philadelphia Warriors' No. 1 draft pick in 1954 after a successful career at the University of Maryland. The Warriors sold him to New York early that season. The following year he played 72 games with the Knicks, averaging 9.2. In the Spring of 1956 he was traded to Ft. Wayne (now Detroit) for the Pistons' first draft choice (Ron Sobie). Gene ranks with the best foul shooters and playmakers in the league. He was fifth in assists last season with 465. In 1959-60 he tied with Wilt Chamberlain for record total minutes played, 3,338, was sixth in NBA points and second in free throw percentage with .872.

GUERIN CLOSING IN ON BRAUN'S RECORD

Richie Guerin, who set a New York Knickerbockers' one season scoring record last year with 2,303 points, an average of 29.5 for 78 games, is closing in on Carl Braun for the all-time Knick career total. Braun scored 10,449 points in 12 seasons as a Knick. Guerin, in six years, has 8,665. He needs 1,785 to crack Carl's mark, which he should do this Winter if he approaches last season's performance. If Rich's does he'll become No. 11 among all-time NBA scorers. The NBA leaders, going into this season were: Dolph Schayes, 18,620 (14 years), Paul Arizin, 16,266 (10), Bob Cousy, 15,952 (12), Bob Pettit, 15,325 (8), Bill Sharman, 12,665 (11), George Mikan, 11,764 (9), Jack Twyman, 11,472 (7).

DON FRIEDERICHS—Team Trainer

Service-wise, the grand pappy of the New York Knickerbockers is Trainer Don Friederichs. This is his 12th season with the club. His duties are numerous and varied and often patience taxing, but Don has never been known to "blow his wig." An additional chore is road secretary. He's proud of his record of not losing a single Knick on a road trip, and the club travels thousands of miles by plane, train, bus and cab during the course of a campaign.

Den mother Don is an inexhaustible body of activity. He's always on the go. He's first man in the Knicks' dressing room, last to leave and last to hit the sack at the end of a long evening. Although shy and tolerant, Don has on occasions disagreed with a referee's call. He's never been fined because he has a clever trick of looking the other way when voicing his objections. Usually some innocent Knick on the bench gets the ref's 100-watt warning glare.

"Donie Baby," as he's affectionately called by the Knicks, is the demanding weight watcher of his charges, a cut mender, vitamins taking insistent, tape wrapper, gripe listener, personal problems consultant and transportation dispatcher. He has a string of 640 games before a death in the family broke the streak in December of 1958.

Friederichs, 39 years old, is from Detroit. He spent five years in the Coast Guard as a pharmacist mate, later two years at the University of Detroit as a dental student. He quit molars for a trainers' school in Florida, worked a year for the Lakeland baseball club then joined the Knicks. He lives in Englewood, N. J. Summer of 1960 he was trainer for the Richmond Virginians, a New York Yankees' farm club.
